

Accompaniment Master Class

Stu Brotman will show the fine points of harmony construction, bass lines, textural energy and fills. Stu will listen to each student's performance and give critical tips on what makes a good accompanist, revealing the professional perspective of when to lead and when to follow.